

---

Certificate in Understanding and Preventing MRSA

NCFE - Northern Council for Further Education

This course has been accredited by the Qualifications and Curriculum Authority (QCA) and is part of the National Qualifications Framework which enables recognition of achievement and facilitates career progression.

Whilst this course has a formal syllabus, we would be delighted to discuss how the programme could be designed and delivered to meet your organisation's needs. We will happily present any programme on your premises.

Who is the course for?

The course is designed for staff working in the health and social care environment those involved in domiciliary, residential, child, day and primary care and the NHS. The course is built around the knowledge and understanding of MRSA and how your work practices can contribute to controlling and preventing the spread of Infection.

Course Content

This qualification aims to increase awareness of MRSA and the effect that it has on individual's lives.

- Evolution and Transmission of MRSA and Associated Infections
- Develop an Awareness of MRSA
- Preventing the spread of MRSA
- Life History and Ecology of MRSA and other bacteria

Duration: 12-14 weeks

Delivery: The course can be started at any time of the year to suit you.