

Health & Safety in the workplace (CIEH)

Who can benefit from the course?

This Level 2 award is suitable for both supervisors and employees.

Course Description

This course is designed to ensure that all employees are aware of their own safety and that of customers, contractors and the public. Employers are responsible for providing a safe and healthy workplace, but employees also have a duty. This course will give them the knowledge and tools to enable them to work safely.

Course Content

The course will cover the following topics:

- Introduction to the legal system for health and safety
- Risk assessment
- Welfare requirements
- Accident investigation
- General workplace hazards including stress and musculo-skeletal disorders
- Other workplace hazards and controls for electricity, machinery, manual handling, hazardous substances, display screen equipment, working at height, transport and vehicles, noise and vibration.

Objectives

Successful delegates will be able to identify key hazards in the workplace, contribute to health and safety within the organisation, understand the importance of safe systems of work, and know how to deal with health and safety issues.
